

PAKISTAN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL, RIYADH

Worksheet: 01

Subject: Social Studies

Grade: VI

Chapter 1: Our countries in the world

Q1: Fill in the blanks.

1. The valley of the river Ganges is the most fertile part of _____.
2. The Deccan is a _____.
3. North and west of Pakistan consists of very high _____.
4. In the south are the deserts of Sindh and _____.
5. The highest point is _____ in Nepal.
6. Mountains are _____ lands.
7. _____ are lands above sea level.
8. Plateaus are areas of _____ land.
9. _____ is flowing or moving water.
10. _____ are completely surrounded by land.

Q2: Correct the statements.

1. China is strategically located as a link between the Islamic bloc.

2. Bolan passes lead to Africa and on to Iran.

3. Most of the water in the western part of the subcontinent comes from the two great river system.

4. In Pakistan 90 % people live in Punjab.

5. Hills are the lands below sea level.

-

Q3: Give short answers.

1. Where is Pakistan located strategically?

2. What does a relief map?

3. From where most of the water in northern part of sub continent come?

4. How does the river of Ganges enter the Bay of Bengal?

5. What is the height of Mount Everest?

6. What are plateaus?

7. What are deserts?

8. What is delta?

Chapter # 03: Winds and Cyclones

Q1: Fill in the blanks.

1. _____ is moving air.
2. In a cyclone, the winds spin round in an _____ direction.
3. Cyclones are _____ than anticyclones.
4. In an anticyclone , the winds go round in a _____ direction.
5. A much smaller but much more violent kind of cyclone is called a _____ or _____.

Q2: Write True or False.

1. Scientists have calculated that even a medium strength cyclone has the power of half a million nuclear bomb. _____
2. Cyclones mean good, gentle weather with moderate rain. _____
3. Anticyclones press down on the surface of Earth, creating low pressure. _____
4. A tornado over the sea is called a toofan in Arabic, Persian, and Urdu. _____
5. Cyclones are not dangerous. _____

Q3: Give short answers.

1. What are cyclones?

2. What do cyclones mean?

3. What are anticyclones?

4. What do anticyclones mean?

5. What is tornado or hurricane?

6. What is twister or waterspout?

7. What is an andhi?

8. What is a dust devil?

9. Why are cyclones dangerous?

Chapter # 06: The climate of South Asia

Q1: Fill in the blanks.

1. There are _____ main wind systems in Pakistan.
2. Pakistan has _____ main regions in terms of rainfall and vegetation.
3. Pakistan does not suffer from frequent _____ cyclones.
4. Most of South Asia has a generally _____ climate.
5. Pakistan can be divided into _____ temperature zone.

Q2: Rewrite sentences after correction.

1. Climate has an indirect impact on the environment of a country.

2. The west coast of India, Bangladesh, and Assam , get moderate rainfall.

3. North-easterly winds from Central Asia sweep into Pakistan and India during summer.

4. The monsoon rains, from October to November, fall mostly in upper Punjab.

5. India is severely affected by the cyclones.

Q3: Give short answers.

1. Name wind systems in Pakistan?

2. Name regions of Pakistan in terms of rainfall and vegetation?

3. Which area is severely affected by the cyclones?

4. What are thunderstorms?

5. How dust storms are made up?

Q4: Fill the table.

Arid
Semi-arid
Humid
Highlands

Q5: Mention the name of your area and tell in which region it is located. Select the region from the table given above.

Best of luck